-----FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE-----

Free Services Available to Trust Property Owners

Pawnee, Okla., Sept 18, 2009— The Oklahoma City University School of Law will be available to draft Wills for trust property owners on Friday, October 9, at the Pawnee Nation of Oklahoma's Administrative Building (Building 64), from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Trust property owners are encouraged to take advantage of the free services related to drafting a Will and establishing beneficiaries. The estates of all trust property owners who die without a Will are subject to the American Indian Probate Reform Act, which determines the distribution of trust property when an owner dies without a Will.

For additional information regarding these free services, contact Stephen Coit, Fiduciary Trust Officer at 918-762-2471.
