

PROPOSED REVISIONS (RED-LINED):

Pawnee Nation Museum By-Laws, Board of Directors IV, Section 4.3, Term of Office

(HOW IT READS NOW)

A Director shall serve for a period of three (3) years with the initial terms being staggered so that one-third of the board will be elected each year. Directors currently in place will continue their terms until the next succeeding fourth quarter meeting of the Business Council of the Pawnee Nation. Upon resignation, removal or vacancy of a Director, the respective successor shall serve the remainder of the term. No Director may serve more than two consecutive terms.

(PROPOSED REVISION)

A Director shall serve for a period of three (3) years with the initial terms being staggered so that one-third of the board will be elected each year. Directors currently in place will continue their terms until the next succeeding fourth quarter meeting of the Business Council of the Pawnee Nation. Upon resignation, removal or vacancy of a Director, the respective successor shall serve the remainder of the term. ~~No~~ Directors may serve ~~more than two~~ unlimited consecutive terms.

(HOW WILL READ IF APPROVED)

A Director shall serve for a period of three (3) years with the initial terms being staggered so that one-third of the board will be elected each year. Directors currently in place will continue their terms until the next succeeding fourth quarter meeting of the Business Council of the Pawnee Nation. Upon resignation, removal or vacancy of a Director, the respective successor shall serve the remainder of the term. Directors may serve unlimited consecutive terms.