

PRESS RELEASE

October 27, 2023

Pawnee, OK. Pawnee Nation Medical Advisory Committee is proud to announce the scholarship award to Ms. Sara Llamas-Howell for the 2023 Fall Academic Semester. The funding was donated by local Pawnee business, Dr. Feel Good Dispensary in the amount of $500.00.

Ms. Llamas Howell is a Pawnee tribal member of the Pitahawirata Band and a current senior at Rogers State University (Claremore, OK) majoring in Allied Health.

"I would like to express my sincerest gratitude to Dr. Feel Good and their partnership with the Pawnee Nation for providing resources, to students like me, that help us to continue pursuing our educational goals and dreams," says Ms. Llamas-Howell on accepting the award.

Committee Chair, Councilman Dr. Gene Evans mentioned, "We are happy to be able to partner with local businesses in the Pawnee community and provide scholarship opportunities for our Pawnee members. Ms. Llamas-Howell has represented her tribe and her family through many facets of her college career and we are honored to be able to award this scholarship to her."

For more information on Pawnee Nation scholarships, or Pawnee Business Council Committee scholarships, please visit our website at www.pawneenation.org.